The elements of Earth have touched body, mind and spirit for centuries. Now we are bringing them to touch you at Elements Spa at the Hilton Palm Springs. This serene experience will bring you to a place where all stress slips away to let you replenish in the natural beauty of the desert. We have consciously created an earth-friendly experience through the use of ecological materials and organic professional products.

Our new resort spa is a journey through the elements, allowing you to experience rain, wind, fire, and air within our nine unique treatment rooms, including three couples' rooms where you and your partner can experience these elements as one.
